

Pastor's Devo... When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I gave up childish ways. For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known. So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 13:11-13

Dear ones, we now find ourselves in the month of November...and this is quite an event filled month. We begin with "All Saint's Day" when we will remember those who have gone before us, like our dear sister, Maggie, and the recently departed Walt...and all those other wonderful Saints who have "Kept their eyes on Jesus". And there is also a major happening, as another Presidential election will happen on the 3rd day of the month...although from the sounds of things, the ballot counting might not be done for several days after that. And we've got our Voter's Assembly scheduled for the 2nd Sunday of the month, where again, we'll come together to seek God's guidance in leading us to use our vision for navigating the up-coming year's effort on His behalf to serve Him and His people here in our neighborhood and wherever else He might want to lead us.

And then we're also planning on another Thanksgiving Eve gathering, before the National Day of Thanksgiving...where the Pandemic might be requiring us to refrain from large gatherings, we ought not lessen our gratitude to Him who continues to keep us in His tender loving care...and with that day arriving we will have also celebrated the end of the current church year, and our celebration of "Christ the King" Sunday, and remember that He promised to return, and soon will...and we're already closer to that day and draw even closer with each passing day. Then, Lord willing, we'll close out the month with the new church year...carrying on the theme of the coming One... Emmanuel...

But we're not there yet...even perhaps as we might want to wish this time away...wishing for this Pandemic to be over...wishing for the start of the Holiday season...wishing (as I know I am) for this Election season to be over...but we need to remember the words of Saint Paul from his words that I chose to provide this theme...NOW, we see dimly...NOW, we know in part...but soon we will see, will know, will be in His presence...but now, we ought to be using each and every one of these days...use THESE days...after all, remember that this is the "Present"...This is the day that the Lord hath made...for us to look and see how we might serve Him and His people, as this place we call "Church"...our gathering of His people, working together for Him...now and forever...Amen!

ADVENT RECITAL Our organist, Dale Stanton will offer a recital on the First Sunday in Advent, Nov. 29 at 2:00 p.m. at the church. The theme is "Joy to the World, the Lord is Come," based on Psalm 98: 4 & 9 ("Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth, burst into jubilant song with music, for He comes to judge the earth...He will judge the world in righteousness."). The program will consist of selections based on the familiar Advent hymns in LSB. Attendees will follow the same coronavirus precautions as on Sunday morning. As always, the recital is free and open to the public.
